A Note from Swamp Meadow's Executive Director

Our upcoming season, for the most part, represents a return to "tradition."

We open our season with our Summer Children's Theatre presentation of Annie, Jr (August). We follow this traditional show with traditional Americana, as we present Thornton Wilder's Our Town this fall.

For the holidays, we recreate a traditional show that showcases one family's slightly offbeat traditions in A Christmas Story.

We round out our season with our spring show, La Cage aux Folles, which, we acknowledge, probably does not represent "tradition" for most of us, but will bring lots of laughs and enjoyment regardless.

In addition to these shows, we plan to continue our tradition of hosting a dinner theater, and we begin a new tradition as our newly-formed Teen Troupe works on a special show for which they are in the process of writing the stage adaptation.

We hope that you will join us for all of these shows and events this year, and make us a part of your own tradition.

Dennis Chretien, Executive Director

A NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR

The majority of this page is filled with the people who make up the “Director.” To have me write an article and affix my name to it would not be true to whom the Director really is. I am, indeed, the lead Director, but Maddy Cook-Hines is the Director of the Leads. Devlin Cook-Hines Directed the Orphans, Ruth Lear Directed the House Staff, Gabrielle Dworkin and I Directed the Ensemble, and that was just the acting. Emily Carter and Jenna DeFransisco Directed the notes that were sung by the cast along with Isabella Giorgianni who Directed the accompaniment; Michelle Pezzelli and Sarina Resnick Directed the steps of the dance team and the choreography of the entire cast. Audrey Dubois managed and Directed the entire application of the vision.

Then there was the whole technical side Directed by Steve Carter and implemented under the lighting Direction of Sarah Lear, the sound Direction of Andy Affleck, the costume Direction of Lisa Theroux, Julie Briggs, and Kristen Arruda, and the set Direction of Laura Giorgianni, who also Directed the Production.

I have not even gotten to all the people who Directed an aspect of the tickets, the welcoming, the refreshments, the communication with the school and that doesn’t even touch upon the Board of Directors at SMCT who provide us a foundation on which to build such a wonderful production.

So... what you see, hear, and experience is only the tip of the iceberg of the work of the many people who is the Director, (I know, bad grammar, but a great concept!)

As the Director, WE are proud (and I am deeply indebted to the above) to present to you the experience of Annie Jr. We hope that you become the Director of laughter, tears, enjoyment, and fun as you join Annie in search of parents and love!

It's a Hard-Knock Life

The Hooghly Girl

Monique Grandy

Read the unforgettable true story of Kusum Lata, now known as Monique Grandy, mother of Swamp Meadow's own Maia Grandy.

At the age of three, Kusum and her younger brother were separated from their family, and were sent to Hooghly Jail in Calcutta, India.

There, among the women inmates, they grew up with other orphaned and abandoned children until, at age 12, Kusum was adopted by a family in America.

Through good times and bad, Monique remains positive and hopeful that one day her biggest dream will come true—that she will be reunited with her long-lost brother, whom she hasn't seen since she was separated from him while in the Hooghly Jail.

The Hooghly Girl is available on Amazon.com (print, Kindle and other e-reader formats), or for an autographed copy you can contact Monique at 401-397-7379.
