SMCT is a Non-Profit Organization

A little history...

SMCT was born out of the vision of our founder, the then 15 year old Amy Hollis. That vision grew under the nurturing of fosteringArts.org. The community has so embraced it that now SMCT has grown up to form its own non-profit organization, Swamp Meadow Community Theatre, Incorporated.

We currently produce at least two feature length plays and one Children's Theatre production each year.

Our latest venture is to grow into our own building so that we can produce more and varied plays, increase our training and skill development, and offer more entertainment to the community. We have begun a financial appeal to raise 1.2 million dollars to make that dream come true.

We need your help in so many ways. Surely there is a place for you in the SMCT family. Your attendance here tonight is a contribution to the cause. Financially, and more so as a confirmation of our attempts to build community, you are making a difference. You are always invited to share your talents (acting, building, lighting, sound, music, sewing, advertising, helping) in bringing a production to life! That is the backbone of SMCT. You can support our many fund raisers or make a contribution to our capital appeal. You can join the SMCT Board of Directors or one of the over 25 committees of the Dream Team that will move us into the next phase of our success.

We are extremely proud of how far we have come, extremely proud of those who share their talents, extremely grateful for all the support we have received, and extremely excited about the future!

You can contact us (or join us) at www.swampmeadow.org or by calling the Box Office at 1-888-493-7110.

SMCT Presents
A SEASON OF LITERARY GENIUS

A Note from the Executive Director

Grahame, Shakespeare, Chaucer, Shelley, Twain, Dubois. What do they all have in common? They are all great authors and they are all featured in the 2011-2012 SMCT Season of Plays and Dinner Theaters!

Mr. Toad's Mad Adventures (The Wind In the Willows), Romeo & Juliet, Get Merry: The Royal Wedding, Twain's Tales: Stories from the Hannibal General Store, and The Canterbury Tales, are all going to be brought to life on the SMCT Stage. What a treat to remember the words of such classics portrayed on stage with the usual SMCT charm and flair.

We are excited about this season and the joy that it will bring to you. As an added bonus, we hope that you will flood your local libraries with requests for these classic tales that you can bring home and fall in love with all over again!

As always, if you like what you experience at any SMCT show, please tell your friends. If you don't like what you see and hear, please tell me (Bob Hollis, president@swampmeadow.org). If you would like to be part of helping us choose plays for future seasons contact Liz Dubois (creative@swampmeadow.org) If you would like to take a more active role in SMCT please contact our Membership Director, Zach Farnum (zfarnum117@gmail.com). And, if you would like to make a donation to help us with our current season or in making the Dream Come True, please contact Laura Giorgianni (payment@swampmeadow.org).

We hope that this season will help you enjoy some of our favorite literary characters brought to life!

Citizens and Students Together
Coalition for Community Health

Swamp Meadow Community Theatre is proud to be in partnership with C.A.S.T. in their goal to reduce violence and abuse of alcohol, tobacco and other drugs in our communities. We emphasize building community by encouraging individuals and establishing meaningful relationships.

FAMILIES that work TOGETHER on a PLAY will deal with DRAMA in a HEALTHY WAY!
When FAMILIES TOGETHER come and see a SHOW... they're more ready for ACTION wherever they go!

Please join us in talking with your children about your need to trust them in making healthy choices. Spending mealtimes together help families stay connected and keep communication lines open.

From the Directors

Hello there! We welcome you to SMCT'S spring production, "Canterbury Tales or... Geoffrey Chaucer's Flying Circus" by Burton Bumgarner. This is really a wacky, hysterical, screwball comedy based on stories written by 14th Century author, Geoffrey Chaucer, that have been rewritten by Burton Bumgarner with a "Monty Python" flair.

Join us, along with Geoffrey Chaucer, Harry Bailey & Mrs. Bailey, the Stage Manager, the Sign Changer, the Knight, the Miller, the Parson, the Pardoner, the nun Sister Agnes and the Friar. Even the Wife of Bath has cleaned up her act for this adaptation and is now a nagging woman who sells self-help DVDs! The Miller, too, makes many appearances, though nobody wants to hear anything he has to say! We even have game show host, Alex of Trebek, talk show host Duchess Ellen, and a few Thanksgiving pilgrims that ended up in the wrong play! Plus, you will meet lots of other wild, wacky tourist. We are happy you can hop on board the "Canterbury Flyer" as we travel to the Shrine of Thomas Becket, telling tall tales, enjoying mugs of Honeysuckle Mead and take-out Barnyard-Casserole.

We thank our talented cast & crew who are truly "family" in many ways. Actually this cast is made up of lots of family members. There are at least 5 sets of families, 2 having three generations working together, two sisters and a brother, two sets of aunts and nieces, a father and two daughters, throw in a couple of husbands and their wives. We even have a mom who will tell ya she's almost 96. Every one else in the cast might not be blood relatives, but believe me, we are one big happy family.

This is our third time as a directing team. The third time is a charm as they say. We have had such a good experience directing this play and we're looking forward to our next endeavor. We will be returning this fall with the holiday classic "It's a Wonderful Life".

We thank the Swamp Meadow board of directors for their continuing support and you our audience for your loyal patronage. With your help all of us at SMCT strive to "Bring Theatre Back to the Community".

Personal Statement: I'm standing at the edge of my first play ever and it's now time to dig deep for the courage so that I can "Soar With the Eagles" ... Besides, how do you say "No" to Artie!

This is another fine production and it's been a terrific ride on the Canterbury Tour Bus!

It's been a pleasure filling in on different scenes. You're a great group of actors. Thanks for sharing the stage!

As a first time producer I need to thank all the people who worked with me. Laura G., your editing and advice was very much appreciated. Carol M. thanks so much for keeping me on track. Heather, you're the best and it's been great working with you! Mary, your expertise with make up is the best and I knew we were in good hands. Carol G. you really know your stuff and the cast looks super! Krystal, we're so happy you were able to come back, (from the other side of RI) and take on the choreography. You're the best! Lucy, a big thank you goes to you for heading up the concessions! Thanks to Andy and Eric for making the play sound fabulous! Emily, Michelle and Jill for lighting the way to Canterbury. Dennis, once again thanks for all you do to help the publicity guy! (Oh, Dr. can you resize this?) Also, Kim, your art work is always spot on. We love you, love you! Laura, thanks for taking care of the reservations, another important job!

I hope I didn't forget anyone. It takes so many folks to put these plays on and every job is crucial to our success. I want you to know, you are appreciated!

Lona
