Each season, our performers take you places that you might never reach without their help. (In some cases, we hope sincerely that you never reach these places on your own.) Some of these places reside in the "real world" and some "not." Some reside in the past, and some may seem to be right next door. (If certain of these places do seem to be "right next door" to you, please accept our sympathy.)

We opened our season with a "hell of a trip," as our new "SMCT Unplugged" series presented No Exit at the Foster Old Town House in mid-July. From there, for those who managed to make it out of what truly did feel like hell (at least temperature-wise), our Summer Children's Theatre now takes you to the Jungles of India, in The Jungle Book.

If you manage to avoid Shere-kahn, your next stop on our tour is Salem, Massachusetts in the seventeenth century, as we present The Crucible this fall. (October 11-13 and 18-20.) Again, if you make it out of Salem without being crushed, hanged, burned, or drowned as a witch, you will be able to relax for the holidays with The Man Who Came to Dinner. (December 6-8 and 13-15.)

Please don't overstay your welcome, or you'll miss the funeral.

Yes, our next stop is at Paddy Finnegan's wake, as we present Finnegan's Farewell as a Dinner Theater show on March 1 and 2. Enjoy a fine (Irish?) meal (or maybe a dessert buffet), enjoy a great show, and maybe help solve a mystery. We hope that you do not fall victim to any foul play so that you'll be able to join us on our trip to Paris.

Our final show will be another trip back in time to join Athos, Porthos, and Aramis, along with D'Artagnan in The Three Musketeers. (May 2-4 and 9-11.)

We hope that you will join us this year for our trips out of this world, around the world, and through time, for intellectual stimulation, fantasy, drama, comedy, and adventure.

From the Lear Family

A note from the director...

Disney's The Jungle Book was my favorite movie as a toddler. Even now, over twelve years later, I still remember and love the story, the characters, and especially the songs. So last year when I decided I wanted to direct a children's play, The Jungle Book was the obvious choice. For a year I have been planning this show to be a great learning experience for emerging actors, personalized for our unique SMCT family, and, most importantly, fun for everyone involved. I believe that this production, which features the many talents of our wonderful and diverse cast, is a perfect example of our objectives here at Swamp Meadow.

As a rising senior at Ponaganset High School, I am entering my eleventh year with SMCT. Since 2002, I have participated in almost thirty productions, working nearly all aspects of a theater: actor, musician, technician, set painter, usher, assistant director, and many more. This summer, I finally had the opportunity to direct. Despite the challenges that come with the job, I couldn't have asked for a better cast, crew, or production. This has been a wonderful experience that I will never forget. I am glad to have been able to share my experience with all of you, and to bring the joys of SMCT and the performing arts to so many young children.

Joining Swamp Meadow so many years ago changed my life, and the lessons I have learned and the relationships I have built in this community continue to influence me every day in all that I do. Thank you to all who have helped me along this amazing journey with SMCT, and good luck to those of you who are just beginning yours.

Enjoy the show!
