Coalition for Community Health

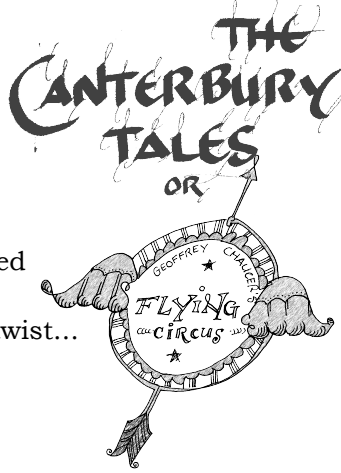

At Swamp Meadow Community Theatre, we:

1. Produce quality drama and performing arts at an affordable price for the entire community.
2. Provide a supportive venue for members to use their existing dramatic and artistic talents and to showcase those skills in order to fulfill their vocational/recreational goals.
3. Ensure opportunities for our children and teens to participate in all phases and levels of production.
4. Provide training and mentoring so that members can learn and develop new dramatic and artistic talents and skills and build confidence in existing skills.
5. Constantly seek new members to provide them with an opportunity for fun and a healthy use their leisure time.
6. Develop a spirit of community and camaraderie, pulling together members and audience from across multiple rural and cultural communities.

A little history...

SMCT was born out of the vision of our founder, the then 15 year old Amy Hollis. That vision grew under the nurturing of fosteringArts.org. The community has so embraced it that now SMCT has grown up to form its own non-profit organization, Swamp Meadow Community Theatre, Incorporated.

We currently produce at least two feature length plays and one Children's Theatre production each year.

Our latest venture is to grow into our own building so that we can produce more and varied plays, increase our training and skill development, and offer more entertainment to the community. We have begun a financial appeal to raise 1.2 million dollars to make that dream come true.

We need your help in so many ways. Surely there is a place for you in the SMCT family. Your attendance here tonight is a contribution to the cause. Financially, and more so as a confirmation of our attempts to build community, you are making a difference. You are always invited to share your talents (acting, building, lighting, sound, music, sewing, advertising, helping) in bringing a production to life! That is the backbone of SMCT. You can support our many fund raisers or make a contribution to our capital appeal. You can join the SMCT Board of Directors or one of the over 25 committees of the Dream Team that will move us into the next phase of our success.

We are extremely proud of how far we have come, extremely proud of those who share their talents, extremely grateful for all the support we have received, and extremely excited about the future!

You can contact us (or join us) at www.swampmeadow.org or by calling the Box Office at 1-888-493-7110.

SMCT Presents
A SEASON OF LITERARY GENIUS

A Note from the Executive Director

Grahame, Shakespeare, Chaucer, Shelley, Twain, Dubois. What do they all have in common? They are all great authors and they are all featured in the 2011-2012 SMCT Season of Plays and Dinner Theaters!

Mr. Toad's Mad Adventures (The Wind In the Willows), Romeo & Juliet, Get Merry: The Royal Wedding, Twain's Tales: Stories from the Hannibal General Store, and The Canterbury Tales, are all going to be brought to life on the SMCT Stage. What a treat to remember the words of such classics portrayed on stage with the usual SMCT charm and flair.

We are excited about this season and the joy that it will bring to you. As an added bonus, we hope that you will flood your local libraries with requests for these classic tales that you can bring home and fall in love with all over again!

As always, if you like what you experience at any SMCT show, please tell your friends. If you don't like what you see and hear, please tell me (Bob Hollis, president@swampmeadow.org). If you would like to be part of helping us choose plays for future seasons contact Liz Dubois (creative@swampmeadow.org) If you would like to take a more active role in SMCT please contact our Membership Director, Zach Farnum (zfarnum117@gmail.com). And, if you would like to make a donation to help us with our current season or in making the Dream Come True, please contact Laura Giorgianni (payment@swampmeadow.org).

We hope that this season will help you enjoy some of our favorite literary characters brought to life!

Citizens and Students Together
Coalition for Community Health

Swamp Meadow Community Theatre is proud to be in partnership with C.A.S.T. in their goal to reduce violence and abuse of alcohol, tobacco and other drugs in our communities. We emphasize building community by encouraging individuals and establishing meaningful relationships.

FAMILIES that work TOGETHER on a PLAY will deal with DRAMA in a HEALTHY WAY!
When FAMILIES TOGETHER come and see a SHOW... they're more ready for ACTION wherever they go!

Please join us in talking with your children about your need to trust them in making healthy choices. Spending mealtimes together help families stay connected and keep communication lines open.

Director's Note

Thank you to all of you good people for coming out to see our Merry extravaganza! I originally wrote this show last year with a few key elements in mind. Since it is a busy time of year, I wanted it to be a show that would be FUN to rehearse, perform, and view, and that would be flexible enough to include the many various talents of our Swamp Meadow community. Thusly, Get Merry was born! The mighty Bob Hollis joined me in expanding and clarifying the script, and helped turn it into a fast moving, pun-filled show. Fortunately, Bob and I share the same ridiculous sense of humor, so it has been a blast to expand the show yet again this year to include the Royal Wedding, complete with enough sub-plots to keep you royally guessing how it will all end!

Thanks to the actors and performers in our amazing, hand-picked and highly talented cast! Special shout-out to Dennis, Gary, Kaila, Reilly, Kyle I., Kyle M., Seanna and Olivia, who had lots to memorize and did so with great enthusiasm. The entire cast's willingness to step up at this time of year and rehearse for months in advance really show dedication. I have had such a great time watching all of you own your parts and make them come alive with individual personality. I certainly hope the ride has been fun, because as I said at the beginning, that was my main reason for writing a play like this! Thanks also to Bob for adding his special brand of Bobness to the script and to the directing- you always add layers to these things that I would never think of... and remember, folks, if you found anything to be borderline offensive or overly pun-gent, see Bob about that! (haha) Thanks also to my mom Carol Goulet for producing and all her work on getting the costumes finished and just right- you always know what I am talking about and how to make it happen. Oh, and the Royal Latrines are a work of true genius! Thank you Eric Dubois, without whom so many things might never actually happen, and to Audrey Dubois for her masterful editing work on this here playbill in your hands. Thanks also to Hanaan Rosenthal for his tremendous "baking" skills in making our wedding cake prop!

Thanks to you ALL for a show we can be proud of... and here's hoping that the cast and audience enjoy Get Merry! The Royal Wedding!

Royally yours,

Swamp Meadow Community Theatre Presents
