

COMING NEXT SEASON!

SUMMER 2017 Children's Theatre

James and the Giant Peach

Adventure across the Atlantic ocean with a boy named James, his insect friends, and a giant peach. What mystery awaits? What adventures will unfold? How do a boy, enormous talking insects, and a giant peach travel across the ocean in the first place? See the show this summer to find out.

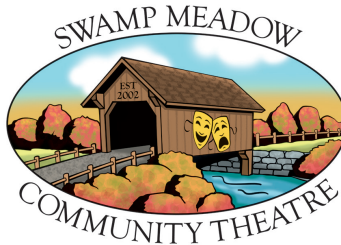

FALL 2017

Tending to Grace

World Premiere!

An original adaptation of the young adult novel by local author, Kimberly Newton Fusco. This is the story of Cornelia, a girl trying to find her voice and make her way in the world. Not an easy task for a girl who stutters and can barely say her own name.

Schedule subject to change. Check our website for latest information.

Building Community through Theatre

Swamp Meadow Community Theatre brings children and adults together to produce entertaining theatrical productions, improving the community and building camaraderie among cast members and audiences in the process.

Join in the fun! Come see our shows, release your inner actor, or be part of the crew that makes it all possible.
